Workshop & Webinar Descriptions:

Are You Ready for “The Talk”?

Bullying is often a confusing time for children with disabilities as they try to understand the changes their bodies go through and emotions they may be feeling. Learn how to teach your adolescent important skills, like understanding appropriate relationships, boundaries, skills, and keeping up with hygiene. Feel more confident as you get ready to have “the talk.”

Behavior and Discipline in Schools

Participants will learn the components of the discipline process under IDEA and gain strategies to help children manage their behavior. Understanding Positive Behavior Supports, Nevada’s Laws on Aversion Interventions, intervention and expulsion policies will give participants strategies to help children reach success.

Bullies, Targets, and Bystanders: Responses that Work

While bullying doesn’t always leave bruises or broken bones, it can leave deep emotional scars that last a lifetime. Bullying is a serious issue that occurs throughout our schools everyday and, without intervention, bullying can lead to serious academic, social, emotional, and legal problems. Don’t miss this class full of responses to bullying that really work.

Coffee Tea and IEP

Don’t miss a new small group learning opportunity for families! This guided interactive discussion will explore the special education process and encourage meaningful participation in IEPs. You’ll learn new ideas that encourage high expectations that lead to success for students with disabilities.

Considering College? Learn What’s Available and How to Get It

Thinking about going to college? This workshop will guide you where to go, what to ask, and how to apply to help you get ready for the next chapter of your life as a college student. You will be provided a “You Can Do It!” workbook to assist you with gathering information to better prepare you for your post-secondary education. Parents and students are encouraged to attend this workshop together.

Evaluation & Response to Intervention (RTI)

Evaluation and determining eligibility are key elements in special education. Participants in this workshop will learn about the process that determines the need for special education and related services.

Getting the First Job

Both parents and students will learn an overview of the realities of employment for youth. Topics include determining the role of families and suggestions to increase the likelihood of being hired for a job.

Help Your Child Focus on Learning

Do you find that homework and other tasks can be challenging for your child to complete? Learn about the difficulties children have with focusing, their different learning styles, and strategies that can help you help your child focus better.

How is My Child Reading

This workshop focuses on helping participants understand terms that are used when discussing reading and writing. Learning the building blocks of literacy will answer this question and give parents the confidence to discuss reading scores with school staff. Don’t miss this workshop full of valuable information on how students learn to read and write.

IEP Clinic Workshop

Parents are key members of their child’s IEP team. This workshop includes an overview of the Individualized Education Program (IEP), including how to use current research written materials and replicating approaches, as well as strategies to help parents become more active participants in their child’s IEP. Please have your child’s IEP handy so you can review it during the workshop.

Making the Most Out of Your Baby’s Early Intervention Services

Parents who have concerns about their child’s development often feel overwhelmed and unsure where to turn. Early intervention services can help your infant or toddler become eligible for speech, pre-speech, and motor milestones. This workshop is for families of children under the age of three who want to learn more about the free services that are available to enhance their baby’s development.
